

Conditions of use

Spamming

SMSme is not to be used under any circumstances for spamming activity. If you are unsure what constitutes spam in Australia please refer to the ACMA website at http://www.acma.gov.au/WEB/STANDARD..PC/pc=PC_310321

By using our service you are accepting to abide by Australian Government regulations governing the use of SMS as disclosed at the ACMA website.

Should you contravene the ACMA regulations, your account will be suspended immediately and without notice.

Inappropriate material

Should users engage in sending messages of a violent, pornographic, vulgar, abusive, racist or defamatory nature via our service, your account will be suspended immediately without notice.

SMSme reserves the right to suspend any accounts immediately and without notice. Your use of our service signifies your acceptance of our right to suspend without notice.

Contact us for any queries info@smsme.com.au

Free Ad-sponsored SMS

When subscribers register with our Ad sponsored SMS service – they are asked to nominate the team, organization or association to which they belong and their position within that organization – ie team manager for example

Subscribers using our ad-sponsored service are only permitted to send SMS messages that relate to the day-to-day business of the team, organization or association. Personal messages or messages relating to business outside the day-to-day running of the subscribers team, association or organization, will result in the cancellation of the subscribers account.